CODE OF CONDUCT TO REGULATE, MONITOR AND REPORT TRADING BY DESIGNATED PERSONS AND THEIR IMMEDIATE RELATIVES

1. INTRODUCTION

Trading in securities of a company by Designated Persons (defined below) and their Immediate Relatives (defined below) based on Unpublished Price Sensitive Information erodes the investors' confidence in the integrity of the management and is unhealthy for the capital markets. To put in place a framework for prohibition of insider trading in securities and to strengthen the legal framework relating thereto, the Securities and Exchange Board of India ("SEBI") has notified the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, as amended from time to time ("Insider Trading Regulations"). In compliance with Regulation 9 of the Insider Trading Regulations, the board of directors of Moneyview Limited¹ ("Company") has adopted this Code of Conduct to regulate, monitor and report trading by Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives ("Insider Trading Code"). This document embodies the Insider Trading Code to be followed by the Company effective from the commencement of listing and trading of the equity shares of the Company on the stock exchange(s), i.e. BSE Limited and/or the National Stock Exchange of India Limited, in accordance with Applicable Laws. Provided however that the relevant provision of the Insider Trading Regulations which are applicable to the companies 'proposed to be listed' shall become applicable on filing the offer document as per Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations 2018, as amended from time to time.

3. COMPLIANCE OFFICER

- a) The Compliance Officer is responsible for compliance of policies, procedures, monitoring adherence to the Insider Trading Code and applicable laws for the preservation of UPSI, monitoring of trades and the implementation of the codes specified in the Insider Trading Regulations under the overall supervision of the Board .
- b) The Compliance Officer shall maintain records of Designated Persons and any changes made to the list of Designated Persons, all the declarations submitted in the appropriate form given by the Designated Persons.
- c) The Compliance Officer shall ensure proper assistance to all the Insiders, Designated Persons, employees/ directors in addressing any clarifications regarding the Insider Trading Regulations and this Insider Trading Code.
- d) The Compliance Officer shall in consultation with the chairman and/or managing director and the Board specify the prohibited period (i.e. closure of the trading window in accordance with the Insider Trading Regulations) from time to time and make announcement/s thereof ensuring that prohibited period is intimated to all concerned before the commencement of the said period.
- e) The Compliance Officer shall recommend to the audit committee and/or the managing director or the Board punitive measures or disciplinary action prescribed for any violation or contravention of this Insider Trading Code.
- f) The Compliance Officer shall report to the Board and in particular, shall provide reports to the chairman of the Audit Committee, or to the chairman of the Board on a periodical basis whenever required (but at least once in a financial year) or at such frequency as may be stipulated by the Board.

- g) The Compliance Officer shall monitor the bringing in of Insiders on sensitive transactions and shall make them aware of the duties and responsibilities attached to the receipt of UPSI, and the liability that attaches to misuse or unwarranted use of such information.

4. PRESERVATION OF “UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION” AND CHINESE WALL

- a) All UPSI is to be handled on a “Need to Know” basis, i.e. UPSI should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or likelihood of misuse of the information. The Company will conduct periodic training sessions for Insiders to ensure compliance with Insider Trading Regulations and the Company’s Insider Trading Code including the importance of maintaining confidentiality and the consequences of misusing UPSI.
- b) To prevent the misuse of confidential information the Company adopts a ‘Chinese Wall’ policy thereby separating those areas of the Company which routinely have access to confidential information, considered as ‘inside areas’ from those areas which deal with sale / marketing / investment advice or other departments providing support services, considered as ‘public areas’.
- c) The employees in the inside areas shall not communicate any UPSI to any one in public area. Demarcation of various departments as ‘inside area’ shall be implemented by the Compliance Officer, in consultation with the Chief Financial Officer of the Company.

In exceptional circumstances i.e. in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations, any Designated Person may be permitted to ‘cross the wall’ and give UPSI to any person on a ‘need to know’ basis (and subject to such person(s) executing necessary instruments as recommended by the Compliance Officer to maintain confidentiality), under intimation to and with prior approval of the Compliance Officer.

- d) No Insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any UPSI, relating to the Company or securities, to any person including other Insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations and is in accordance with Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Price Sensitive Information of the Company.
- e) No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of UPSI, relating to the Company or securities, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations and in accordance with Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Price Sensitive Information of the Company.
- f) However, UPSI may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which:
 - i. entails an obligation to make an open offer under the Takeover Regulations where the Board is of informed opinion that sharing of such UPSI is in the best interests of the Company; or
 - ii. does not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the Takeover Regulations but where the Board is of the informed opinion that sharing of such UPSI is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitutes UPSI is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.
- g) For the above purposes, the Board shall require the parties to such transactions to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of this clause 4 and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of UPSI.
- h) Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password etc.

- i) Digital Database: A structured digital database shall be maintained containing the nature of UPSI and the names of such persons or entities with whom information is shared or who has shared such information along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such databases shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database. This digital database should be preserved for a period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions. The Board shall ensure compliance with this clause in consultation with the Compliance Officer.

5. PREVENTION OF MISUSE OF “UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION”

All Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives shall be subject to trading restrictions enumerated herein. As a general overriding rule, no Insider shall directly or indirectly trade in securities of the Company when in possession of UPSI. When a person who is in possession of UPSI, has traded in securities, his trades would be presumed to be motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession except in the circumstances and exceptions specified under the Insider Trading Regulations. An insider may trade in securities of the Company when the Trading Window is open and such Insider is not in possession of UPSI. An Insider shall not provide tips or advise any third party on trading in Company's securities while in possession of UPSI.

6. TRADING PLAN

An Insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan. This gives an option to persons who may be perpetually in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information and enabling them to trade in securities in a compliant manner.

a) Trading Plan shall:

- i. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the Insider earlier than 120 calendar days from the public disclosure of the plan;
- ii. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- iii. set out:
 - 1. either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded
 - 2. nature of the trade
 - 3. either specific date or time period not exceeding five consecutive trading days
 - 4. (optional condition) price limit, that is an upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade (to be rounded off to the nearest numeral), subject to the range as specified below:
 - a. for a buy trade: the upper price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and up to twenty per cent higher than such closing price;
 - b. for a sell trade: the lower price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and up to twenty per cent lower than such closing price.

Insider may make adjustments, with the approval of the Compliance Officer, in the number of securities and price limit in the event of corporate actions related to bonus issue and stock split occurring after the approval of trading plan and the same shall be notified on the stock exchanges on which securities are listed.

- iv. not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
- b) The Compliance officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of the Insider Trading Regulations. The Compliance Officer shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan. 'Trading Window' and Pre-Clearance approval norms shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

- c) The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan or to deviate from it except due to permanent incapacity or bankruptcy or operation of law. However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any UPSI and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. Further, if the insider has set a price limit for a trade under 6 (a)(iii)(4) above, the insider shall execute the trade only if the execution price of the security is within such limit. If price of the security is outside the price limit set by the insider, the trade shall not be executed.
- d) In case of non-implementation (full/partial) of trading plan due to either reasons enumerated in (d) or failure of execution of trade due to inadequate liquidity in the scrip, the following procedure shall be adopted:
 - i. The insider shall intimate non-implementation (full/partial) of trading plan to the compliance officer within two trading days of end of tenure of the trading plan with reasons thereof and supporting documents, if any.
 - ii. Upon receipt of information from the insider, the compliance officer, shall place such information along with his recommendation to accept or reject the submissions of the insider, before the Audit Committee in the immediate next meeting. The Audit Committee shall decide whether such non-implementation (full/partial) was bona fide or not.
 - iii. The decision of the Audit Committee shall be notified by the compliance officer on the same day to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.
 - iv. In case the Audit Committee does not accept the submissions made by the insider, then the compliance officer shall take action as per the Code of Conduct.
- e) The compliance officer shall approve or reject the trading plan within two trading days of receipt of the trading plan and notify the approved plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed on the day of approval.
- f) The provisions regarding pre-clearance of trades and trading window norms shall not be applicable for a trade executed as per an approved Trading Plan.

7. TRADING WINDOW AND PRE- CLEARANCE OF TRADES

a) Trading Window

- i. Other than the period(s) for which the 'Trading Window' is closed as prescribed hereunder, the same shall remain open for trading in the Securities of the Company by the Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives. In addition to such periods prescribed by the Compliance Officer, the Trading Window shall be closed from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results. The gap between clearance of accounts by the Audit Committee and the Board meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same date to avoid leakage of material information.
- ii. In addition to the above, Trading Window may be closed by the Company during such times in addition to the above period as it may deem fit from time to time including when the Compliance Officer determines that a Designated Person or a class of Designated Persons can be reasonably expected to possess UPSI till at least 48 hours after the UPSI is made public and becomes generally available.
- iii. No Designated Person and their Immediate Relatives shall trade in the securities of the Company when the Trading Window is closed.
- iv. It shall be the responsibility of the Designated Persons to advise their Immediate Relatives of Trading Window closure periods.

- v. The trading window restrictions shall not apply in respect of transactions: (a) specified in clauses (i) to (iv) and (vi) of the proviso to sub-regulation (1) of regulation 4 of the Insider Trading Regulations and in respect of a pledge/unpledge of shares for a bona fide purpose such as raising of funds, subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer and compliance with the respective regulations made by SEBI; (b) which are undertaken in accordance with respective regulations made by SEBI such as acquisition by conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to rights issue, further public issue, preferential allotment or tendering of shares in a buy-back offer, open offer, delisting offer or transactions which are undertaken through such other mechanism as may be specified by SEBI from time to time.
- b) Pre- clearance of Trades
- i. All Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives of the Company, who intend to trade in the Securities of the Company, if the value of the Securities likely to be traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of INR 10,00,000, will have to make an application to the Compliance Officer in the prescribed form (Form E) given in this Insider Trading Code for pre-clearance of the transaction.
 - ii. Prior to approving any trades, the Compliance Officer shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. The Compliance Officer shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate. The Compliance Officer shall not approve any proposed trade by Designated Person if the Compliance Officer determines that such Designated Person is in possession of UPSI even though the trading window is open.
 - iii. The Audit Committee Chairperson or the Audit Committee of the Company in the absence of the chairperson shall be the approving authority for the pre- clearance application of Compliance Officer.
 - iv. All the pre-approved trades shall in respect of the Securities of the Company shall be executed within seven Trading Days after the approval of pre-clearance is given, failing which, fresh pre-clearance for trades to be executed shall be obtained.
 - v. The Compliance Officer shall have a right to revoke any clearance granted to any transaction or add further additional restrictions to any clearance, before the relevant transaction has been executed.
 - vi. In case any transaction has been refused, the Designated Person shall be free to re-apply for pre-clearance of the transaction, which was refused, to the next higher authority i.e to Managing Director/Chief Executive Officer/Whole-Time Director, if Compliance Officer has refused the transaction.
 - vii. The restrictions contained in this clause shall also apply to Immediate Relatives in respect the concerned Designated Person.

8. OTHER RESTRICTIONS RELATING TO DEALING IN SECURITIES OF THE COMPANY

Following additional restrictions shall apply while dealing in securities by Designated Persons for themselves or for their relatives:

- a) The concerned persons shall disclose to the Company in the prescribed Form (Form D) the number of securities acquired or disposed of for which pre-clearances is obtained within two trading days of such transaction.
- b) The concerned persons shall disclose to the Company in the prescribed Form (Form D) the number of securities not traded, in respect of transactions for which pre-clearances are obtained within nine Trading Days after the approval of pre-clearance is given.
- c) The disclosures to be made by any person under this Insider Trading Code shall include those relating to trading by such person's Immediate Relatives.

- d) Derivative Transactions: Designated Persons and/or their Immediate Relatives shall be prohibited from entering into derivative transactions in respect of Securities of the Company.
- e) Any Designated Person or his Immediate Relative who is permitted to trade shall not execute a Contra Trade within six months. In case any Contra Trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of the restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.
- f) In respect of ESOPs, subscribing, exercising and subsequent sale of shares, so acquired by exercising ESOPs (hereinafter “ESOP shares”), shall not attract contra trade restrictions. Further, if the ESOP shares are sold in multiple transactions, it will not attract contra trade restrictions.
Further, other provisions of the Insider Trading Regulations shall apply to the sale of shares so acquired through exercising ESOPs.
- g) In case any Contra Trade is necessitated by personal emergency, the holding period of six months as specified above may be waived by the Compliance Officer after recording in writing his/her reasons in this regard, subject to the Insider Trading Regulations. An application for waiver of holding period shall be made to the Compliance Officer through concerned Departmental Head in the prescribed Form (Form F).
- h) Contra Trade restrictions are applicable on each and every trade irrespective of whether the trades are below or above the threshold limit of Pre Clearance.
